

Son of Marionite Killed in Battle Given $1,000 Bond

Stuart Wayne Flockencier, (above), 15-month-old son of Mrs. Lillian Flockencier and the late Forest Delbert Flockencier, machinist's mate 1/c, recently received a $1,000 war bond as a remembrance from the Coast Guard crew who served on an LST with the father. Because of their respect and affection for their shipmate, the crew contributed the bond for the child's future education. Flockencier was killed April 1, 1945, at Okinawa while helping to hoist a landing net into the ship, a task for which he had volunteered. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flockencier live on Mary street. Flockencier's son and widow now live in Detroit.
